If you have read Life Without Ed, you know how much a difference Thom has made in my life. Now with his telephone consultations, he can make that difference for you too.

-Jenni Schaefer
Eating Disorder Recovery Advocate
Author, Life Without Ed

Thom Rutledge LCSW, a psychotherapist, author and speaker, has experienced both sides of the therapeutic relationship -- as clinician and as client. He blends his personal recovery from depression, addiction and excessive self-criticism with 25 years of professional experience to guide his clients, readers, and audiences from self-judgment and perfectionism toward genuine self-compassion. Thom's trademark sense of humor, a down-to-earth practicality, and his own compassion are the common threads that run throughout his unique brand of self-help psychology.

Now Thom is available for telephone consultations, so you don't have to live in, or travel to, Nashville to benefit from his wisdom and guidance (and his humor). Thom will work with you to determine what you want to gain from your phone sessions, whether you decide to book just one session or several. Sessions are available in 30 minute and 60 minute time frames.

Take a look at the following information and if you would like to book some telephone time with Thom, e-mail thomrutledge@earthlink.net or call 615-327-3423.

Telephone consultations with Thom can serve any number of purposes. The sessions are available to help in a way that makes sense to you. For instance...

- Occasional sessions as an adjunct to therapy and support in which you are already involved
- Regular sessions as a part of your on-going support system
- A few sessions to help deal with a specific problem or decision
- An occasional “tune up” session to help keep you on the recovery path
- One or two sessions to get some coaching from Thom about how to use methods described in his books
- As short-term aftercare following participation in one of Thom's weekend retreats --- or as preparation before attending a retreat

One of the great things about working with Thom is that if you are willing to put his methods into action, even just one session can really make a difference.
